Township Hosting Open Houses Special Event Operations and Municipal Planning Process – Burl's Creek

Oro-Medonte, ON – The Township of Oro-Medonte will be hosting two (2) open houses related to Burl's Creek Event Grounds to provide information regarding special event operations and municipal planning processes.

Representatives from the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario, Ontario Provincial Police, Simcoe Muskoka District Health Unit, Simcoe County Paramedics, and municipal staff will present.

Open House Session 1

Monday, April 13, 2015 | 3:00pm – 5:00pm
Oro-Medonte Community Centre Banquet Hall, 71 Line 4 North, Oro-Medonte

Open House Session 2

Monday, April 13, 2015 | 7:00pm – 9:00pm
Trinity Community Presbyterian Church, 110 Line 7 South, Oro-Medonte

The same information will be shared at both sessions. Due to the large number of attendees expected and the limited capacity of the facilities, we request that the public attend only one of the sessions to accommodate everyone interested in attending.

In response to questions raised, printed information will be available at the open houses and posted to the Township's website.

At the Open Houses, staff will be providing an overview of the planning application process. These open houses are not part of the Planning Act Public Meeting process; those meetings will be scheduled at a later date with notice provided. The forum for receiving input regarding the Burl's Creek planning application is the future Public Meeting and cannot be accepted at the open house.

Oro-Medonte is a diverse and beautiful community with a central location in Ontario.
